

YOUTH LIBRARY VOLUNTEER

Parental Agreement

You have enthusiasm, fresh ideas, a sense of adventure, dedication, and the desire to be a part of something greater than yourself. You want to meet new people, gain workplace experience, build your college resume, and fulfill school credits or extracurricular activities. You need to be a part of the Cedar Rapids Public Library!

We are thrilled to have youth volunteers as a part of the Library. It's easy to talk about how youth are the "next generation" of library users, but that isn't true. The truth is you use the Library now. You are patrons, volunteers, and advocates today. Take advantage of all that the Library has to offer. There is a great opportunity waiting for you. Join us in giving back – and you'll be amazed by just how much you get in return!

Age Guidelines

The Cedar Rapids Public Library welcomes youth volunteers age 14-17 to work independently in the Library. Volunteers age 18+ are considered adult volunteers. Volunteers under the age of 14 can volunteer alongside an older family member supervising them onsite. If volunteers under the age of 14 are volunteering with family members, all active family volunteers must complete the full volunteer application, background check process, orientation, and training. (The exception to these guidelines would be volunteers working as part of a Library program/group.)

Hours Guidelines

Volunteers age 16-17 have no limitations on hours. Volunteers under the age of 16 will follow the acceptable work hours as outlined by the federal government and the State of Iowa.
